PROVO, Utah, Nov. 8, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Nu Skin Enterprises (NYSE: NUS) today announced that Forbes named it to its list of the World's Top Female Friendly Companies for 2021. Nu Skin ranks #90 on the inaugural list of 300 companies who are leading the way to support women inside and outside their workforces.

"At Nu Skin, we've been committed to empowering women for the past 37 years, and we're honored to be acknowledged by Forbes for these efforts," said Ryan Napierski, Nu Skin president and CEO. "The past two years have been difficult, but we've seen how they have taken an especially hard toll on women around the world. We're committed to doing even more to create a supportive work environment and drive gender equity in the workplace."

To compile the list, Forbes worked with Statista to survey 85,000 women in 40 countries. Respondents were asked to rate their employers' performance on gender-related criteria and their willingness to recommend their employer to others. Statista also asked respondents to rate companies based on their corporate responsibility, marketing campaigns and public perception, as related to gender equality. The final list ranks the 300 companies that received the most recommendations and boast the most gender-diverse boards and executive ranks.
